Report of Air Battles 08.00-16.40 hrs. in KENT & LONDON Areas

Friday 1st November 1940

Data compiled immediately after the Attacks

Area of Attacks: During the morning and afternoon four Raids were directed against London, which appeared from the coast between Dungeness and Deal. A further Raid was directed against shipping in the Thames estuary. In the 1st Raid approximately 9 Messerschmitt Me 109s crossed the coast near Dover at 08.05 and penetrated to the Sittingbourne area, where bombs were dropped: HE-bombs were also dropped near Dover. Another formation of Me 109s crossed the coast near Dover at 08.05, with HE-bombs dropped in the vicinity of Dover. Another formation of 9 Me 109s made landfall-in 15 minutes later, and circled around Canterbury at 08.32 hours. In the 2nd Raid approximately 36 Me 109s, in two formations, made landfall-in near Dover: one formation reached the IAZ [Inner Artillery Zone] at 11.25, the other formation dropped HE on West Malling at 11.27 hours. Both turned east to make landfall-out near Dover. In the 3rd Raid, at 13.03, an estimated 36 Me 109s made landfall-in Folkestone to penetrate to the IAZ, where several HE-bombs fell in the Bromley and Biggin Hill areas. In the 4th Raid, a mixed formation of Ju 87s and Ju 88s, escorted by 40 Me 109s, attacked the Convoys Arena, Argus and Fruit off North Foreland, and in the Thames Estuary, at 14.30 hours. In the 5th Raid, two formations of approximately 120 Italian bombers escorted by Me 109s, attacked Dover, where a few HEs were dropped at 16.22 hours.

Orders from Group Controllers:

First Attack Ordered 253 and 605 Squadrons from Kenley to the Maidstone-Line at daybreak. 41 and 603 Squadrons ordered at 07.50 to Rochford-Patrol, and later to the Maidstone-Line, where they were ordered to attack Raid-7 at 08.25^{hrs.}

Second Attack 229 and 615 Squadrons from Northolt, which had been ordered to the Maidstone-Patrol at 10.30, were ordered to attack Raid-30 at 11.14 hrs. 501 and 253 Squadrons from Kenley had been ordered to Maidstone-Patrol at 11.02^{hrs.}, and at 11.23 were ordered to attack Raid-1. In addition 74 and 92 Squadrons were ordered from Readiness to patrol the Maidstone-Line but were not ordered to intercept.

Third Attack 46 and 17 Squadrons from North Weald had been ordered to the Maidstone-Line at 12.17^{hrs.} No. 222 and 603 from Hornchurch were ordered to leave the ground at 12.50, the order being passed at 12.42^{hrs.} No. 229 and 302 Squadrons were ordered to patrol the Croydon-Line at 12.53^{hrs.} No. 72 and 92 Squadrons were ordered to patrol Biggin Hill at 13.14^{hrs.}, and take over the Readiness Patrol after another interception: these units were subsequently employed to intercept the raid on the convoy in the Thames Estuary.

Fourth Attack 74 and 92 Squadrons, previously order on Readiness Patrol, were ordered to patrol Manston at 13.50^{hrs.} These were detached to intercept the Raid at 14.18^{hrs.} No. 253 and 605 Squadrons from Kenley were ordered to patrol at 14.05, and then detached to protect Convoy Fruit at 14.38^{hrs.} No. 257 and 249 Squadrons were ordered to patrol North Weald at 14.11^{hrs.}, and were then detached to the raids off Sheerness at 14.33^{hrs.}

Fifth Attack 17 and 46 Squadrons from North Weald were ordered to Readiness Patrol at Maidstone at 15.17^{hrs.} 41 and 603 from Hornchurch were ordered to patrol Base at 15.45^{hrs.}, and later detailed to form the Canterbury-Patrol at 16.11^{hrs.} No. 229 and 302 Squadrons were ordered to patrol the Croyden-Line at 15.46^{hrs.}, and were later directed to the Rye-Patrol at 16.15^{hrs.}

Action by Fighter Squadrons :

First Attack No. 253 and 605 Squadrons were airborne at 07.35^{hrs.} 605 Squadron engaged 18 Me 109s claiming 1-2-4 for the loss of the C.O., who was killed. Pilots of 253 Squadron saw several Me 109s flying southbound, but failed to intercept. No. 41 and 603 Squadrons were airborne at 08.02 hrs. for the Maidstone-Patrol. These squadrons did not see the Raid, but it is possible that the enemy saw them and retreated.

Second Attack No. 229 and 615 Squadrons were airborne at 10.30^{hrs.} Both saw several formations of Me 109s in the distance near the coast, but were unable to maintain contact. 501 and 253 Squadrons were airborne at 11.07-11.15^{hrs.}, in response. These saw enemy formations near Dover, and although no contact was gained these formations were effectively turned, and another force of 6 Me 109s was thought to have been forced to jettison their bombs into the sea. No. 74 and 92 Squadrons were airborne at 11.20^{hrs.} to join the Maidstone-Patrol, and were bounced when over Hawkinge. The Duxford Wing: at 11.25^{hrs.} 12 Group requested permission to provide the Wing to patrol Sheerness-Maidstone at 25,000 feet. According to Hornchurch D/F Fixer plots, the Wing reached its patrol at 12.09^{hrs.} and was withdrawn by 12 Group some 26 minutes later because squadrons within the Wing were claiming to be under oxygen-shortage. No interceptions were claimed by 12 Group as a result of this patrol.

Third Attack No. 17 and 46 Squadrons were airborne at 12.26^{hrs.} These units engaged with Me 109s at 31,000 ft., a pilot of 46 Squadron claiming 0-0-1. A pilot of 46 Squadron is missing. No. 603 and 222 Squadrons were airborne at 12.59 and 13.05^{hrs.} respectively. The enemy was not seen, and permission was granted to descend to 15,000 ft. due oxygen-shortage. When this patrol was running short of fuel, it encountered two large enemy formations of 20 Ju 87s escorted by 30 Me 109s. Although reduced to five aircraft, 222 Squadron attacked but without event. In this mêlée a Spitfire of 421 Squadron [a Patrol] claimed 1-1-0.

Fourth Attack No. 92 and 74 Squadrons were airborne at 13.25^{hrs.} Ten minutes later 92 Squadron reported that it had failed to join up with 74 due cloud-layers and haze conditions. When over the Thames Estuary 92 Squadron saw formations of enemy fighters and bombers, and, in the ensuing engagements, 3-0-0 Me 109s, 1-0-0 Ju 87 and 1-0-0 Ju 88s were claimed. No. 605 and 253 Squadrons were airborne at 14.15^{hrs.} and witnessed this combat, but were unable to engage. However, a section sighted a Do 17 over Eastchurch, moved in but were unable to make the distance as the bomber dived.

Fifth Attack No. 17 and 46 Squadrons were airborne North Weald at 15.23^{hrs.} One pilot, on rear-guard to his squadron, saw a three-engine Savoia-Marchetti, which was later claimed as damaged near Dover. No other enemy aircraft was seen. No. 222 and 603 Squadrons were airborne at 13.25 and 16.00^{hrs.} respectively, but were unable to catch-up with the Raids near Dover. The Duxford Wing: at 13.45^{hrs.} 12 Group requested permission to provide the Wing to patrol Sheerness-Maidstone at 25,000 feet. The Wing reached the patrol-line at 14.46, and, at 15.00 hrs., was ordered to Canterbury-Hawkinge to provide cover to the convoys sailing off Ramsgate and in the Thames Estuary.
